Using Advanced Features

This chapter explains many advanced features of your notebook computer.

Multiple Displays

Adjusting display settings

You can adjust your display settings in Display Properties. Enter through Start, Control Panel, Appearance and Themes, Display or, right-click on the Windows on the display icon on the taskbar (if visible), choose Settings then Display Settings. Following the on screen display step by step panels, you will be able to adjust the appearance of your desktop. You will also be able to configure your computer to use more than one display. Follow the instructions on the next two pages.

Using multiple displays

Your computer can be simultaneously connected to a computer monitor and television display while also using the built-in panel display. These displays can be configured to mirror each other, or they can be arranged as separate portions of a single desktop.

For information on how to attach a television and computer monitor to your computer, please see chapter 6.

Make sure the computer is turned off before connecting an external monitor or television.

desktop then check Properties. Alternatively, right-click
