Using the TOSHIBA Face Recognition

If your computer is equipped with a web camera, the TOSHIBA Face Recognition feature can be used to verify the face of users when they log on to Windows. If the verification is successful, a user will be logged on to Windows automatically. The user can thus avoid having to enter a password, which makes the login process easier.

TOSHIBA Face Recognition does not guarantee the correct identification of a user. Changes to the likeness of a registrant, such as hair style changes, wearing a cap, or wearing glasses may effect the recognition rates when such changes occur after the registrant had registered.

■ TOSHIBA Face Recognition may incorrectly recognize faces that are similar to a registrant.

■ For high security purposes, TOSHIBA Face Recognition is not a suitable substitute for Windows passwords. When security is a high priority, use your established Windows passwords to log in.

■ Bright background light and/or shadows may prevent a registrant from being recognized correctly. In that case, log in using your Windows password. If recognition of a registrant fails repeatedly, refer to your computer documentation to learn ways to improve recognition performance.
